Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 12 June 2003.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

1. This is a supplemental action in response to a telephone call from applicant on 7/8/03 pointing out a discrepancy in the previous action between the summary sheet and the detailed action, specifically the summary sheet stating the action was final and the detailed action making no mention of finality. The discrepancy has been corrected with this supplemental action, stating that the action is final, and restarting the period for response from the mail date of this supplemental action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-4, 16, 21-32, 38-42 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Young et al. (US 5,762,552).

Young discloses a gambling system with remote gaming stations connected to a central station by electronic cameras, including displaying in the monitor of the gaming machine the live action game of chance taken by the electronic camera (column 3, lines 29-34).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 5-15 and 33-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Young in view of Penzias (US 5,397,133).

Young discloses all the limitations of claims 5-15 and 33-37, with the exception of having a display and camera to represent each player.

Penzias teaches having a camera and display to represent each player.

Therefore, it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the system of Young with the displays of Penzias.

Doing so would provide the physical characteristics lacking in electronic games (Penzias column 1, lines 13-45).

6. Claims 18 and 44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Young in view of Levy (US 3,909,002).

Young discloses all the limitations of claims 18 and 44 with the exception that the game be a dice game.

Levy teaches that the game is a dice game.

Therefore, it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the system of Young with the dice game of Levy.

Doing so would be an obvious substitution of games, as Young anticipates using various games in the system.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 17, 19-20, 43, and 45-52 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Art Unit: 3754

8. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art does not teach the apparatus or method as claimed including a slot machine activated remotely by the remote player (claims 17 and 43), or a plurality of different games including a first group where the element of chance is effected by the remote player and a second group where the element of chance is effected by a house person at the casino.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments filed 6/12/2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. As discussed above in 1, Young discloses the claim limitations added to claims 1 and 27, including displaying in the monitor of the gaming machine the live action game of chance taken by the electronic camera (column 3, lines 29-34).

Conclusion

10. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
